Unfinished Business:

People need to get their ads together. Cindy will be the chief steward. No refrigerator yet. We need to bring some coolers. We can also use the kitchen refrigerator at the school.

Merrilynn Hill seminar is full. It is $40 for the first class and $35 for each class after that and $10 to audit.

Connie Cleveland is very expensive. There will be 24 dogs to work. $1,200 per day plus her expenses. It will be $200 for non-club members working both days and $150 for Club member working spots. $50 for auditing per day for non-members and members are $40 per day for auditing. 3 weeks before is the cutoff date for refunds.

New Business:

Can we have our trial in York County?

Meet the Breeds is on September 15. We don't need to do a Rally Course. Maybe we could have a bake sale. It is 10-4 that day. Someone should bring an E-Z Up. You don't have to be there all day.

The next Board meeting is at Barbara Schwartz's home.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Bob Cuzner and seconded by Barbara. Meeting was adjourned at 7:53 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Tripp, Recording Secretary

BRAGS

Here is a brag for the next newsletter. Jack and Mary went to a trial in New Hampshire on August 10 and 11. Jack qualified in the Farm Trial on Friday and got his Open Farm Trial title and then on Sunday he had a 1st place in Open Cattle and finished his Open Cattle title in ASCA for both.
